This four day international competition will draw riders from all over the world to earn their qualifying scores for the Olympic Games, the World Equestrian Games and world wide ranking.

Each of our 2012 shows (with nearly 800 competitors and over two thousand competitive rides) had a waiting list for competitors to compete. Spectators numbered close to 5000. For more demographics, please contact us for details.

Centerline Events is offering an opportunity to be a sponsor or to simply advertise at all their shows. We can bring you to the grass roots competitors to the new modern facility that will draw international competitors making this competition the highlight of our competitive season.
